

Keeping Children & Young People Safe in our Programs

Migrant Information Centre (Eastern Melbourne) (MIC)

OUR COMMITMENT

The MIC wants all children and young people coming to our offices, programs, events and activities to be safe. We will make sure that no harm comes to you by following safety rules.

EVERYONE IS WELCOME

We welcome children and young people with a disability, from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds, from Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander backgrounds, those who are unable to live at home and LGBTQIA+.

YOUR PARTICIPATION

We encourage and respect the views of children and young people who access our services. We listen and act upon any concerns that children, young people or their families raise with us.

DID YOU KNOW?

- MIC has experienced staff and volunteers that work with children and young people.
- MIC runs a lot of different programs for children and young people, which includes Holiday Programs, Homework Support, School Outreach and many more.
